

**Underneath*the*Stars**

The biblical story of Ruth is about ordinary people in extraordinary circumstances. It is a tale of love, tragedy, friendship and faith. Real people, real lives. And now it's brought to life by Credo Arts Community in a brand new, full-length production. In this fast-moving, multi-media world, we are all trying to find ways of communicating the Gospel with relevance and passion. Drama can be a useful tool in this – it can raise questions, challenge thinking and inspire action.

**Underneath*the*Stars** is a two act play, with each act lasting approximately one hour, penned by Credo Arts Community. It is based upon the Biblical story of Ruth - a tale of ordinary people in extraordinary circumstances - a tale of love, tragedy, friendship and faith - real people, real lives. **Underneath*the*Stars** was first performed in January 2006, with the twelfth and final Credo performance in February 2008.

The full script, with colour photographs of the original production, is available at a price of £10 (+ £2.50 p&p) and is a photocopyable resource to allow it to be of as much practical use as possible. To order, send cheque for £12.50 to Credo Arts Community, Good News Centre, 67 Wright Street, Hull, HU2 8JD
